

Love through the Ages Reading List

“Great books help you to understand, and they help you to feel understood” (John Green)

Universities and apprenticeships alike will like to discuss your extracurricular interests and hobbies. An effective way to do this is to talk about novels you have recently read that link to your A-Level course. For every novel you read their will be a prize! If you need any more help selecting a novel, speak to Miss Stanley (1023).
