

Year 11 Reading List

“Great books help you to understand, and they help you to feel understood” (John Green)

Are you a student looking to push yourself in English and across the school?

Do you want to expand your knowledge and reading capacity?

Do you want to delve into worlds, as you have encountered so far in the course, of writers who seek to change our attitudes to gender, race and power?

For every novel, you read on this list you will get an All Saints Academy Certificate and 25 Achievement Points from the English Department! Speak to your English teacher or the library to gain copies of the books!
